An interview to discuss the the scope of the claims and the prior art and to arrive at allowable subject matter is respectfully requested.

Likewise, it is requested that the status of the double patenting rejections be addressed at such interview as well, once there is arrival at agreement on the scope of patentable subject matter. The double patenting rejections may be obviated once the final scope of the claims is established; otherwise, the rejections can be addressed via entry of a terminal disclaimer.
